

THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE YELLOW ROSE

ORGANIZED, JUNE 11, 1908
INCORPORATED, JUNE 15, 1908

The Imperial Military Order of the Yellow Rose

T would appear that before 1805 an Order of Chivalry was formed in America, known as the Imperial Military Order of the Yellow Rose, and on the scroll of the Order the following names it is stated were found :

“ Viscount de Fronsac, John Milledge, Augusta, Georgia, late Governor; John Irvine Bulloch, Judge Archibald Stobo Bulloch of Savannah, Georgia; Noble Wymberley Jones, M. D., John Glen, Chief Justice of Georgia, Major John Habersham, W. Harden, and J. Maxwell, all of Georgia, and James De Veaux and John Rutledge of South Carolina.”

This Order was revived May 11, 1908, by Dr. Joseph Gaston Baillie Bulloch, grandson of John Irvine Bulloch and great grandson of Judge John Glen, and also descended from Dr. Noble Wymberley Jones, the title of Military being left out and the proviso added that none but those of royal descent shall hereafter be admitted into membership in the Order. After several meetings and consultations the following constitution was adopted, and application made for incorporation, which was granted under the laws of the United States, in the District of Columbia, on the 15th of June, 1908.

Preamble

Whereas all should keep a perfect record of their ancestry in order that future generations may be able to prove whence they came, and also be able to connect their records with others, that a true and authentic history may be compiled and a faithful and accurate account be made of descent from illustrious progenitors, so we, bearing in mind our descent, have formed this Order, to be known as the Imperial Order of the Yellow Rose, to be composed of those of royal lineage.

NAME.

This Order shall be known as the IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE YELLOW ROSE.

LOCATION.

The location of the Order shall be in the City of Washington or wherever the Chief Regent shall reside.

OBJECT.

The object of this Order is to unite the descendants of all those of royal descent, male and female, into a body or Order of Chivalry, and is not strictly confined to residents of America only, but to all persons of royal lineage in Europe, America, and elsewhere, and to collect and preserve all genealogical and historical data. The members of the Order shall be styled Patricians of the Order.

GOVERNMENT.

There shall be a Supreme Council, composed of officers of the Order, who shall make the laws for the regulation of the Order, and also an officer for each State or country, to be known as a Regent, and the following officers :

ROYAL DESCENT OF THE MEMBERS OF THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE YELLOW ROSE.

Mrs. Woolsey Aspinwall, née Sophy d'Antignac Cuthbert, and her son John Cuthbert Aspinwall, descends through the Cuthberts, Barons of Castle Hill, through Sir James Fraser, of Brae, from Edward III of England.

Mrs. Robert S. Beale, née Sophie Clarkson Stuart, descends from the Royal House of England through the Smith family, of South Carolina, from the family of Smith, of Exeter.

Dr. Marcus Benjamin descends from King Alfred the Great through the families of Lambert, Lyman, Dwight, Hall, Terry, Kibbe and Burke.

George Whitfield Brown descends from Obadiah Bruen, who descends from the Bruens of Bruen Stapleford, who descended from William the Conqueror.

Mrs. George Whitfield Brown, née Mary d'Antignac Cuthbert, her son, Cuthbert Barnwell Brown, and her daughter, Cuthbert Errol Brown, Mrs. Charles Russell Train descends from the Cuthberts of South Carolina, descended of Cuthbert, Barons of Castle Hill, and through them from Sir James Fraser, of Brae, descended from Edward III of England.

Joseph Gaston Baillie Bulloch, M. D., Robert Hutchison Bulloch and Emma Hamilton Bulloch are the children of the late Dr. William Gaston Bulloch and Mary Eliza Adams Lewis. Dr. William Gaston Bulloch is the son of John Irvine Bulloch and Charlotte, daughter of Chief Justice John Glen, of Georgia, 1776-78, and Sarah, daughter of Doctor Noble Wymberley Jones, son of Honorable Noble Jones, of Georgia, 1733-75.

John Irvine Bulloch was the son of Captain James Bulloch and Anne Irvine, daughter of Dr. John Irvine and Anne Elizabeth, daughter of Colonel Kenneth Baillie, son of John Baillie of Balrobert, of the family of Baillie of Dunain, Invernesshire, Scotland, who went to Georgia as early as 1735.

Dr. John Irvine was the son of Charles Irvine, Esq., Laird of Cults, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, who married Euphemia Douglas, the daughter of John Douglas of Tilquhillie and Agnes Horn, son of John Douglas of Tilquhillie and Inchmarlo, in Kincardineshire, Scotland, who married Grizel Forbes, daughter, of Thomas Forbes, first laird of Waterton, and Jean Ramsay, son of William Forbes, ninth Laird of Tolquohon, who married Janet Ogilvie, daughter of Sir George Ogilvie of Dunlugus, by Honorable Beatrix Seton, daughter of George, 4th Lord Seton, and Hon. Eliz. Hay, daughter of John, 3d Lord Yester. George, 4th Lord Seton, was the son of George, 3d Lord Seton, by Lady Janet Hepburn, daughter of Patrick Hepburn, first Earl of Bothwell, who married Lady Janet Douglas, daughter of James Douglas, first Earl of Morton, who married Princess Joanna, daughter of King James the I, of Scotland, by Lady Joan de Beaufort, daughter of John, Earl of Somerset and Marquis of Dorset, by Lady Margaret Holland, daughter of Thomas Holland, sister and co-heiress of Edmond Holland, Earl of Kent.

John, Earl of Somerset, was the son of John of Gaunt, Duke of Lancaster by his 3d wife, Katharine, daughter of Sir Payne Roelt, and John of Gaunt was the son of King Edward III by Phillippa, daughter of William, Count of Holland and Zealand and Lord of Friesland.

Dr. J. G. B. Bulloch married, April 15, 1880, Eunice Helena Bailey and had :

- I. Archibald Irvine De Veaux Bulloch.
- II. William Gaston Glen Bulloch.
- III. Douglas Eugene St. Cloud Bulloch.

Captain James Bulloch and Anne Irvine had :

- I. John Irvine Bulloch, married Charlotte Glen.
- II. James Stephens Bulloch, married 1st Hester A. Elliott, 2d Martha Elliott born Stewart.

III. Jane Bulloch, married John Dunwody.

IV. Anne Bulloch, d. s. p.

From James Bulloch and Hester A. Elliott descended Captain James D. Bulloch, whose children were : James D. Stewart, Dunwody, Jessie, (Mrs. M. Hyslop-Maxwell) and Martha Louise Bulloch. From the marriage to Martha Stewart the issue were : Anna, married James K. Gracie ; Martha, married Theodore Roosevelt, Senior. See Roosevelt Book for issue, and Irvine S. Bulloch.

From Jane Bulloch, who married John Dunwody, descended the Dunwodys of Roswell, Marietta and Macon, Georgia. See history of the families of Bulloch, Stobo and Irvine of Cults.

Prof. Charles Jones Colcock and his daughter, Errol Hay Colcock, of Charleston, S. C., descends through the family of Hay of Lochloy and Park, through the family of Sutherland, from King Robert the Bruce and King Alfred the Great.

Lucius Montrose Cuthbert and Dr. Middleton Fuller Cuthbert descends through the Cuthberts of South Carolina, who descend from Cuthbert, Barons of Castle Hill, Scotland, and by a marriage of George Cuthbert, Baron of Castle Hill, to Magdalen, daughter of Sir James Fraser, of Brae ; the family descends through the Lords Fraser from Edward III of England.

DESCENT OF CUTHBERT FROM THE GORDON FAMILY AND OTHER LINES.

The Gordons date back to the year 1093, to Adam de Gordon. His descendant, Sir Adam de Gordon, married Elizabeth Keith, daughter of Sir William de Keith, Great Marischal. His daughter, Elizabeth de Gordon, married Alexander, son of Sir William Seton, and had Sir Alexander de Seton, Lord of Gordon, created Earl of Huntly by King James II, who married third, Elizabeth, daughter of William, Lord Chrichton, and had George Gordon, second Earl of Huntly, who married Lady Elizabeth Hay, daughter of the Earl of Erroll, and had Alexander, third Earl of Huntly, who married Lady Janet Stewart, daughter of John, Earl of Atholl, by Lady Margaret Douglas, only daughter of Archibald, fifth Earl of Douglas, and Duke of Touraine, who married Euphemia, daughter of Sir Patrick Graham and Countess Euphemia of Stratherne. The fifth Earl of Douglas was son of Archibald, fourth Earl and Duke of Touraine by Princess Margaret, daughter of Robert III.

Alexander, third Earl of Huntly, and Lady Janet Stewart had John, Lord Gordon, who married Margaret, daughter of King James IV, by Margaret, daughter of John, Lord Drummond, and had George, fourth Earl of Huntly, who married * Elizabeth, daughter of Robert, Lord Keith, sister of William, fourth Earl Marischal, and had Elizabeth Gordon, who married John Stewart, fourth Earl of Atholl, and had Elizabeth Stewart, who married Hugh Fraser, seventh Lord and sixth of Lovat, and had Sir Simon Fraser, eighth Lord Lovat, who married 2d March, 1596, Jean Stewart, and had Sir James Fraser of Brae, whose daughter, Magdalene Fraser, married George Cuthbert, Baron of Castle Hill, and had George Cuthbert, who married Jean Hay, daughter of William Hay, Bishop of Moray, and had among others, Doctor James Cuthbert, who went to South Carolina, and was the ancestor of the Cuthberts, and a branch of the families of Brown of Washington, Heyward, Guerards, Bacots, Trescotts and Elliotts of South Carolina, and of a branch of Aspinwall, and other lines. See Book on Cuthbert, Library of Congress.

King James IV was son of King James III by Christian, daughter of Christian, King of Denmark, and King James III was son of King James II and Mary, daughter of Arnold, Duke of Gueldres, and King James II was son of King James I, by Lady Joanna de Beaufort, daughter of * Scots Peerage says daughter of William, Earl Marischal.

John, Earl of Somerset, son of John, Duke of Lancaster, by Katharine Swynford, daughter Sir Payne Roelt, and John, Duke of Lancaster, was son of Edward III of England. So we see that the Cuthberts descend from the Royal Houses of Scotland and England many times.

Mrs. Edward Davis, née Hester Estelle Kell, daughter of General John Kell, son of John Kell and Marjory Spalding Baillie, daughter of Alexander Baillie and Hester McIntosh, daughter of Col. Wm. McIntosh, son of John Mohr McIntosh, of Borlum, descended from the McIntosh of McIntosh, whose ancestor, Lachlan McIntosh, married Janet Kennedy, daughter of John, 2d Lord, son of Gilbert, 1st Lord Kennedy, son of James Kennedy, by Princess Mary, daughter of Robert III and widow of Earl of Angus. The McIntoshes also descend from Baillie of Dunain, of Royal lineage.

Major Jefferson Davis Dunwody, son of Major John Dunwody, son of John Dunwody and Jane Bulloch, descends through the family of Bulloch, through the Douglasses of Tilquhillie, Forbes of Watertown, Setons, Ogilvies and Douglas, Earl of Morton, from Princess Joanna, daughter of King James I of Scotland, and Lady Jean de Beaufort, great grand daughter of King Edward III of England. His children are Mrs. Robert Wright Jackson, née Kate Hester Dunwody, Robson Dunwody, Elizabeth Hanbury Dunwody, Cornelia Dunwody and Archibald Bulloch Dunwody and his grandson, Robert Wright Jackson.

Matilda Hedges Evans was born January 24, 1899, in Denver, Colorado, and at present resides at Gorham, Colorado.

Matilda Hedges Evans is the daughter of David Edward Evans, born July 28, 1866, in London, England, married (2) April 10, 1898, Bernice Churchill Hedges, born February 9, 1862, near Hedgesville, West Virginia, then Virginia.

Bernice Churchill Hedges is the daughter of Decatur Hedges, born Feb. 28, 1832, near Hedgesville, Virginia, died there October 16, 1916, married (1) Mary Heugh Beall, born May 3, 1828, in Cumberland, Maryland, died May 14, 1869, in Frederick County, Virginia.

Mary Heugh Beall was a lineal descendant of Major Thomas Brooke, of Brookefield, Prince Georges Co., Md., and his 1st wife, Anne Baker, also of Robert Brooke, immigrant to Maryland, through whom her descent is deduced from Alfred the Great and Charlemagne.

Ethelbert Fairfax, Jane Cary Fairfax and Mrs. J. A. Moncure, née Edith Fairfax, descend through the Fairfax family, Barons of Cameron, from Edward II of England.

The ancestor of the American Fairfax family was William Fairfax, son of Henry Fairfax, second son of the fourth Lord Fairfax and Anne Harrison, born October 30, 1691. He was of Belvoir, Virginia, and President of the King's Council in Virginia, and agent for his cousin Thomas, sixth Lord Fairfax, who was Lord Proprietor under grant from the English Crown of all the land in Virginia between the Rappahannock and Potomac Rivers, comprising about six million acres.

William Fairfax married twice. By the second marriage, to Deborah Clark, had: Brian, eighth Lord Fairfax, of Toulston, in Yorkshire, and Mount Eagle, in Virginia. In 1759 he married Elizabeth, daughter of Col. Wilson Cary, of Ceelys. His eldest son was Thomas, ninth Lord of Fairfax Co., Va., who married Margaret Herbert, and had a third son Orlando, married Mary Randolph Cary and had, besides others, Ethelbert Fairfax, Jane Cary Fairfax and Edith, who married as his first wife Dr. J. A. Moncure. Of this line of Fairfax were Lillian V. Fairfax and Gwendolind (Fairfax) Moncure, daughters, of Frederick Fairfax, and Mary A. Cook, daughter of Lt. Commander John A. Cook, U. S. N. Frederick Fairfax was the son of Wilson Miles Cary Fairfax and Lucy Anna Griffith, son of Ferdinando Fairfax and Elizabeth Blair Cary, son of Brian, eighth Lord, and Elizabeth Cary. This illustrious line of Fairfax are descended from the Fairfaxes, Barons of Cameron, and the Fairfaxes herein mentioned, who descended from the eighth Lord Fairfax, are descended from Edward II, King of England.

Lieutenant Claudius Newman Feamster through the Ashfordby, Newman and Skipwith families of England, descends from King Edward I of England.

Frederick Gregory Forsyth, Viscount de Fronsac, and his brother, Thomas Scott Forsyth, according to the pedigree furnished, are the sons of Capt. Frederick Forsyth de Fronsac and Harriette Marie Jewett, the daughter of Major General Joseph Scott Jewett and Mary Parker Marr Erskine, daughter of Hon. R. P. Marr Erskine, and Olive Plaisted, daughter of Judge Roger Plaisted and Dorcas, daughter of Rev. Dr. John Mellen. Hon. R. P. Marr Erskine is the son of Hon. David Marr Erskine and Mary Manson, daughter of John Manson, and General Joseph Scott Jewett is the son of Joseph Jewett and Ruth McLaughlin, daughter of William McLaughlin and Sarah, daughter of Wm. Jameson, and the latter Joseph Jewett is the son of James Jewett and Sarah, daughter of Joseph Scott.

Captain Frederick Forsyth is the son of Captain Thomas Forsyth de Fronsac and Sallie, the daughter of Captain John Pray and Mary, daughter of Col. John Hamilton by his first marriage to Miss Murray, of the noble family of this name in Scotland.

Col. John Hamilton married, 2d, Miss Claudia Tatnall, of Georgia.

Captain John Pray is the son of Capt. J. Pray by Mariette de St. Veran, daughter of the Marquis de St. Veran. Captain Thomas Forsyth (de Fronsac) is the son of Ensign Wm. Forsyth and Jane, daughter of Surveyor James Wilson and Mary, daughter of James Shirley, and the latter, Ensign Wm. Forsyth, is the son of Hon. Matthew Forsyth of Dykes and Fronsac and Esther Graham, daughter of Robert Graham.

Mrs. Dora Lee Hedges Goodwyn was born on Sept. 5th, in the year 1863, near the city of Martinsburg, county of Berkeley, State of West Virginia.

She is the daughter of Decatur Hedges of Hedgesville, near Martinsburg, West Virginia, and Mary Heugh Beall, of Cumberland, Allegany Co., Maryland, his wife, and grand daughter of Gustavus Beall, of Cumberland, Maryland, and Rachael Tomlinson, of Allegany County, Maryland, his wife, and great grand daughter of Gen. Thomas Brooke Beall, Montgomery Co., Md., and Margaret Heugh, of Frederick County, Maryland, his wife, and great great grand daughter of Ensign Richard Beall, of Frederick Co., Md., and Sarah Brooke, of Maryland, his wife, and great great great grand daughter of Col. Samuel Beall, Jr., of Washington Co., Md., and Eleanor Brooke, of Prince Georges Co., Maryland, his wife, and great great great great grand daughter of Major Thomas Brooke, Prince Georges Co., Md., and Lucy Smith, of Calvert Co., Md., his wife, and great great great great great grand daughter of Col. Thomas Brooke, of Prince Georges Co., Md., and Anne Baker, of Calvert County, Maryland, his 1st wife, and great great great great great grand daughter of Major Thomas Brooke, of Calvert Co., Md., and Eleanor Hatton, of St. Mary's Hundred, Maryland, his wife, and great great great great great great grand daughter of Gov. BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF MRS. DORA LEE HEDGES
GOODWYN, WIDOW OF JUDGE WM. SAMUEL
GOODWYN, OF EMPORIA, VIRGINIA.

Mrs. W. Sam'l Goodwyn was born September 5, 1863, near Hedgesville, in Berkeley Co., W. Va., and is the daughter of Decatur Hedges, deceased, of Hedgesville and Martinsburg, W. Va., through whom she traces descent from Isaac Chapline, member of the King's Council of Virginia, 1610, and Robert Tyler, Mareen Duvall, Anthony Rawlings, and Capt. Daniel Clarke, distinguished Colonial officials of Maryland.

Her mother was Miss Mary Heugh Beall, of Cumberland, Md., a lineal descendant of four of its provincial Governors and many of its illustrious builders and statesmen, entitling her to admission in any hereditary society.

Through both parents Mrs. Goodwyn's descent is deduced from the ancient Kings of England, Scotland, France and Italy.

Through the Carlovingian dynasty her lineage may be traced to the Trojan heroes and kings back to 1264 B. C.

Mrs. Goodwyn is the founder and regent of the Joseph Hedges Chapter, D. A. R., and the First Virginia Chapter of U. S. D. of 1812, both located in Emporia. Sir George West was the son of Sir Thomas West, 8th Lord De la Warr, and Eleanor Copley, son of Sir Richard West, 7th Lord De la Warr, and Catharine Hungerford. The family of West descends from illustrious ancestry, and is of Royal lineage from David I, of Scotland.

Doctor Dunham O. Munson and his son, Herbert Edwin Munson, through the Dunham family are descended from a long line of illustrious ancestors, embracing not only many ancient and noble families of England but also from all the Sovereign Houses of Europe.

Among the noble families we find such names as the Fitz Randolphs, Staffords, Nevilles and de Beauchamps.

The first of the Dunhams of record was Rychert Dunham, 1294, of Devonshire, England, from whom is traced the line down to Deacon John Dunham, born 1589, in Scrooby, England, who was the first of his name to arrive in America, from whom the above Munsons and others are descended. A direct lineal ancestor of Deacon John Dunham was Robert Dunham, of Devonshire, England, who married Margaret Stafford, daughter of Humphrey Stafford, first Duke of Buckingham, and his wife, Anne, daughter of Ralph de Neville, first Earl of Westmoreland. Humphrey Stafford, Duke of Buckingham, was the son of Edmund Stafford, fifth Earl of Stafford, born about 1380, by Anne, daughter of Thomas, Duke of Gloucester, and his wife, Eleanor de Bohun, grand daughter of Edward III, King of England, and the last, Edmund Stafford, was son of Hugh Stafford, 2d Earl, who married Phillippa de Beauchamp, daughter of Thomas de Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick. Edward the III of England was son of Edward II, who married Isabella of France, daughter of Philip IV (le Bel) King of France, and Jane, Queen of Navarre, and Edward the II was son of Edward the I, by Eleanor, daughter of Ferdinand III, King of Castile.

Gen. Thomas Brooke Beall was son of Ensign Richard Beall, born 1738, in Frederick Co., Md., died August, 1778, etc.

Ensign Richard Beall was son of Col. Samuel Beall, Jr., born 1714, in Prince Georges Co., Md., died January, 1778, in Washington Co., Md., married May 23, 1734, in Prince Georges Co., Md., Eleanor Brooke, born March 7, 1716, in Prince Georges Co., Md., etc.

Eleanor Brooke was the daughter of Major Thomas

Brooke, of Brookefield, Prince Georges Co., Md., born 1660, in Calvert Co., Md., died Jan. 7, 1730, married (1) Anne Baker, in 1680, born about 1662 and died 1694, in Calvert Co., Md. Major Brooke was a lineal descendant of Robert Brooke, the immigrant to Maryland, who was a lineal descendant of Alfred the Great, Charlemagne, and many other Kings.

From the foregoing we find that the lines herein mentioned are of Royal Lineage.

It will be observed that there are numerous other families herein mentioned of Royal Lineage, and we therefore refer to authorities which substantiate the claims set forth.

By reference to the work on Cuthbert of Castle Hill and their descendants in South Carolina and Georgia, it will be seen the Cuthberts, a branch of Heyward, Brown, Guerard and others have a clear line of Royal Lineage. The work on Bulloch, Stobo and Irvine of Cults shows the descent of Bulloch, Dunwody, Roosevelt, Irvine and others from the Royal Houses of Scotland and England.

We refer to the Forsters and records of Virginia and Maryland for the descent of the Brookes, from whom Mrs. W. Samuel Goodwyn, Mrs. Milton Welch and others descend, and to other references as to Fairfax, Tardy and others for the Royal lines of descent of these families.
